 - 3.5.1 keep all Items in safe custody at the Premises and shall not without the Customer's prior written consent part with possession, custody or control of any of them or any part of them otherwise than in accordance with the Specification;
 - 3.5.2 keep each set of Items separately and distinctly from any other set of Items and each set of Items shall be kept in such a manner so that they are readily identifiable and distinguishable from any other kind held by Schott Transport on behalf of the Customer;

4.1 The Customer shall:

- 4.1.1 co-operate with Schott Transport in all matters relating to the Services;
- 4.1.2 provide Schott Transport, its employees, agents, consultants and subcontractors, with access to the Customer's premises, office accommodation and other facilities as reasonably required by Schott Transport to allow Schott Transport to perform the Services;
- 4.1.3 provide Schott Transport with such information and materials as Schott Transport may reasonably require in order to supply the Services, and ensure that such information is accurate in all material respects;
- 4.1.4 prepare its premises for its receipt of the Services;
- 4.1.5 obtain and maintain all necessary licences, permissions and consents, which may be required before the Commencement Date; and
- 4.1.6 keep and maintain all materials, equipment, documents and other property of Schott Transport (the Schott Transport Materials) at its premises in safe custody at its own risk, maintain the Schott Transport Materials in good condition until returned to Schott Transport, and not dispose of or use the Schott Transport Materials other than in accordance with Schott Transport' written instructions or authorisation.

4.2 If Schott Transport' performance of any of its obligations under the Contract is prevented or delayed by any act or omission by the Customer or failure by the Customer to perform any relevant obligation (a Customer Default):

- 4.2.1 Schott Transport shall, without limiting its other rights or remedies, have the right to suspend performance of the Services until the Customer remedies the Customer Default, and to rely on the Customer Default to relieve it from the performance of any of its obligations to the extent the Customer Default prevents or delays Schott Transport' performance of any of its obligations;
- 4.2.2 Schott Transport shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Customer arising directly or indirectly from

Schott Transport' failure or delay to perform any of its obligations, as set out in this clause 4.2; and

4.2.5.3 Upon thirty (30) days advance written notice to The Customer, Schott Transport may destroy the stored Items. (In this regard, The Customer recognises that, since the Stored Material has little or no market value, that sale of the Items would be impossible, and destruction is the only way for Schott Transport to mitigate its damage.)

4.2.5.4 If this Contract shall not have been terminated, The Customer shall continue to pay all sums due under this Contract up to and including the date of delivery of the stored Items as provided in (b) above.

4.2.5.5 Terminate this Contract, whereupon Schott Transport shall recover all damages suffered by reason of such termination.

In the event Schott Transport takes any action pursuant to clause 4.2, it shall have no liability to The Customer or anyone claiming through The Customer. All remedies provided for in this Contract are cumulative and may, at the election of The Company, be exercised alternatively, successively or in any other manner and are in addition to any of the rights provided by law. The Company shall be entitled to include all reasonable fees and costs incurred in connection with the enforcement of this Contract.

4.3 The Customer:

If the Customer considers that an Item's value exceeds the Value Limit, it shall notify Schott Transport in writing not less than 72 (seventy two) hours prior to its collection by or delivery to Schott Transport and, upon receipt of such notification, Schott Transport will arrange insurance cover on the customers behalf subject to the customer paying the monthly premium to Schott Transport. In this respect liability to the Customer in respect of such item(s) will be in accordance with the insurance terms and conditions provided;
- 4.3.4 before presenting the Items for storage, shall inform Schott Transport in writing of any special precautions necessitated by the nature, weight or condition of the Items or of any statutory duties specific to the Items with which Schott Transport may need to comply;
- 4.3.5 shall ensure that Items do not contain Prohibited Material. To the extent that the Customer is aware that any Item contains or may contain Prohibited Material, it shall notify Schott Transport in advance of Schott Transport' performance of the Services. Schott Transport has the right, in its sole discretion, to open and inspect any Items, whether pursuant to a Customer notification or otherwise, that it suspects contains Prohibited Material and to refuse to provide the Services in respect of such Items and inform any relevant authorities;
- 4.3.6 shall ensure that all Items are made available in suitable containers, which are in good and serviceable condition and securely and properly packed in compliance with any statutory regulations or official or recognised standards. Schott Transport reserves the right to re-box any Items tendered by the Customer in containers where it reasonably considers that the container is not in good condition and where further deterioration is likely to occur during storage. The Customer will pay Schott Transport' reasonable costs of repackaging together with the cost of the new container. If the Customer does not have suitable containers, Schott Transport will supply sufficient containers to the Customer and will invoice the Customer for the containers supplied at the rates specified in Schedule 1;
- 4.3.7 shall ensure that each Item is numbered and identified on the Item's face (not its lid) and shall further ensure that Schott Transport is provided with sufficient information to enable it to record index and apply a unique barcode identifier to it in accordance with the Specification;

- 4.3.8 if the Customer changes the information recorded on the outside of any Item that it has retrieved from the Premises, shall notify Schott Transport of such change(s) to ensure that Schott Transport' records are updated. The Customer acknowledges that Schott Transport will not accept any responsibility for the identification of Items and it is the sole responsibility of the Customer to ensure that Items are at all times clearly and adequately identified and any changes in that identification are notified to Schott Transport immediately;
- 4.3.9 shall provide adequate facilities for the collection and/or the delivery of Items in a loading bay or access area that can be used by Schott Transport for the purpose of parking a vehicle temporarily while delivering or collecting Items. The Customer shall provide Schott Transport with any required parking permit prior to Schott Transport' delivery or collection. In the event that Schott Transport' vehicle receives a parking or other traffic restriction penalty due to the failure of the Customer to provide adequate facilities, Schott Transport will re-charge the Customer for the appropriate penalty together with a reasonable administrative charge;
- 4.3.10 on receipt by Schott Transport of new or returned Items, shall supply an inventory of the Items detailing the Customer's reference information, in a form acceptable to Schott Transport, that will be used by the Customer for subsequent retrievals. The Customer will be informed of any discrepancy between such inventory and the Items actually received by Schott Transport;
- 4.3.11 acknowledges that Schott Transport will not hand over or permit withdrawals of any Items from the Premises to any person who is not able to provide proof of identity satisfactory to Schott Transport;
- 4.3.12 if the Customer wishes to collect any Items from the Premises, acknowledges that Schott Transport reserves the right to require the Customer's duly authorised representative whilst at the Premises to be accompanied by a Schott Transport representative at all times and to charge the Customer a rate agreed at the time of the request; and
- 4.3.13 shall provide written notice to Schott Transport of a request for permanent retrieval from the Premises or destruction of any Items stored at the Premises and Schott Transport will provide the Customer with an estimate of when it will be able to effect such permanent retrieval or destruction and thereafter shall use reasonable endeavours to comply with such estimates and, in the case of destruction of such Items, will provide to the Customer appropriate evidence of such destruction.

- 4.4 The Customer will indemnify Schott Transport, its subcontractors, agents, employees, successors and assigns in respect of any loss or damage whether direct or consequential arising out of the storage or delivery of the Items, which arises from any negligent act or omission of the Customer or any failure on the part of the Customer to perform or comply with the terms of the Contract or any breach of the Customer's warranties stated in clause 4.

- 5.8 If in any Year, the Customer disposes of greater than 25 (twenty five) per cent of such Items, the Customer shall become liable for additional Charges. These charges will be on a sliding scale based on the value of the storage of the Items for the remainder of the contract term.
- 5.9 An increase by a rate in equivalent of the relative percentage increase in the CPI shall be applied by Schott Transport each year after the expiry of the Initial Term. If in any Year after the expiry of the Initial Term, Schott Transport wishes to increase the Charges by a rate in excess of the relative percentage increase in the CPI during such Year, it may do so by giving not less than 6 (six) weeks' written notice to the Customer setting out its reasons for the proposed increase.

Where any taxable supply for VAT purposes is made under the Contract, the Customer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from Schott Transport, pay to Schott Transport such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Services at the same time as payment is due for the supply of the Services.

5.16 Schott Transport requires payment to terms. In the event that an account is outstanding, we will refer the matter to our debt collection agents, which will incur costs of 15% + vat. Any costs incurred to collect the debt will be added to the debt, plus VAT at the prevailing rate. 6.4 Unless both parties agree to a proposed change in writing, there shall be no change to the scope or execution of the Services or the Specification and the parties agree to act reasonably and in good faith in their discussions relating to any proposed change and their efforts to reach any such agreement.

6.5 If the parties agree to a proposed change, the change shall be made, only after agreement of the necessary variations to the Charges, the scope or execution of the Services or Specification, and any other relevant terms of the Contract to take account of the change that has been reached and this Contract has been varied in accordance with clause 13.5.

11.3 If, for any reason, Schott Transport continues to provide any element of the Services after termination of the Contract, Schott Transport may charge the Customer at such rates as would have been charged had the Contract not been terminated.

12 Confidentiality.

12.1 In this clause 12, Confidential Information shall mean any and all information (whether or not in writing and in any electronic or other form on any media), including all Personal Data, all confidential or proprietary information relating to the business, affairs, customers, clients, suppliers of a party and the terms of this Contract (and any quotation, correspondence or discussions which gave rise to this Contract), which is not generally available to the public (other than as a direct or indirect result of the information being disclosed in breach of this Contract) or which is lawfully in the possession of the party on a non confidential basis.

12.2 In order (without limitation) to protect each party's commercial interests and in order to comply with Data Protection Legislation, each party undertakes that it shall not at any time disclose to any person any Confidential Information, except as permitted by clause 12.3.

12.3 Each party may disclose the other party's Confidential Information:

12.3.1 to its employees, officers, representatives, subcontractors or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of carrying out the party's obligations under the Contract and only to the extent required for such purpose. Each party shall ensure that its employees, officers, representatives, subcontractors or advisers to whom it discloses the other party's Confidential Information comply with this clause 12; and

12.3.2 as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority.

12.4 Neither party shall use the other party's Confidential Information for any purpose other than to perform its obligations under the Contract.

13 General

13.1 Neither party shall be in breach of this Contract nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under this Contract if such delay or failure results from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control.

13.2 Schott Transport may at any time assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights under the Contract and may subcontract or delegate in any manner any or all of its obligations under the Contract to any third party or agent. The Customer shall not, without the prior written consent of Schott Transport, assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights or obligations under the Contract.

13.3 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter.

13.4 Each party agrees that it shall have no remedies in respect of any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this agreement. Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in the Contract.

13.5 No variation of the Contract shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties (or their authorised representatives).

13.6 A waiver of any right or remedy is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. A delay or failure to exercise, or the single or partial exercise of, any right or remedy shall not:

13.6.1 waive that or any other right or remedy; or

13.6.2 prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

13.7 If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract.

13.8 If a dispute arises out of or in connection with the Contract or the performance, validity or enforceability of it (a Dispute) then, subject to clause 13.8.3, the parties shall follow the dispute resolution procedure set out in this clause:

13.8.1 either party shall give to the other written notice of the Dispute, setting out its nature and full particulars (a Dispute Notice), together with relevant supporting documentation. On service of the Dispute Notice, suitably authorised representatives of each party shall attempt in good faith to resolve the Dispute;

13.8.2 if the authorised representatives referred to in clause 13.8.1 are for any reason unable to resolve the Dispute within ten (10) Business Days of service of the Dispute Notice, the parties shall attempt to settle it by mediation in accordance with the CEDR Model Mediation Procedure. Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the mediator shall be nominated by CEDR Solve. To initiate the mediation, a party must serve notice in writing (an ADR notice) to the other party requesting a mediation. A copy of the ADR notice should be sent to CEDR Solve. The mediation shall start not later than twenty (20) Business Days after the date of the ADR notice. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the place of mediation shall be nominated by the mediator; and

13.8.3 the commencement of a mediation shall not prevent the parties commencing or continuing court proceedings.

13.9 Any notices to be served under the Contract may be personally delivered or sent by pre-paid first class post or facsimile transmission and may be sent, delivered or transmitted to either party at its registered office or such other address as is notified for this purpose from time to time by either party to the other. A notice shall be deemed to have been given immediately on personal delivery or facsimile transmission or 48 hours after posting if sent by first class post, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to show that the envelope was properly addressed and put into the post. The Contract reference number should be quoted in all correspondence.

13.10 No one other than a party to the Contract shall have any right to enforce any of its terms.

13.11 Schott Transport will acknowledge in writing to customers that as the service provider the company will maintain all applicable PCI DSS requirements to the extent the service provider possesses or otherwise stores, processes, or transmits cardholder data on behalf of the customer, or to the extent that they could impact the security of the customer's cardholder data environment.

13.12 The Contract, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

13.13 Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation.
